Re: Peddlers and Solicitor Ordinance Amendment
Our File No. 55142 NOV

Dear Mayor and Council:

Attached is a draft of a proposed ordinance to amend the current regulations governing peddling and soliciting in the City of Novi. The City Clerk's office recently received an application from an individual who sought to obtain a permit to conduct solicitation for charitable donations on essentially every street corner in the City, for a 90-day period. As written, the ordinance did not clearly prohibit or limit that activity, so the Council asked our office to review the ordinance and propose revisions.

We have reviewed the City's ordinance and ordinances from many other communities, and researched the law relating to these types of ordinances. As you can imagine, the law in this area becomes quite complicated by virtue of the First Amendment issues involved when the activity being regulated is a non-commercial solicitation, such as was proposed in this instance.

As a general proposition, the City's ordinance stood up pretty well against many of the other ordinances we reviewed, including various current model ordinances. We ended up proposing only a few changes—adding some standards for denying a permit; adding a requirement that, if the applicant intends to solicit in a right-of-way such as a street corner, the specific location must be indicated; adding a provision limiting the time frame for soliciting on a street corner to much less than 90 days; adding some limitations on the number of specific locations an applicant can apply for; and adding some general conduct-related rules.

One issue that Council might want to discuss as part of its review is the issue of solicitation in the traveled area of a right-of-way. The ordinance does not prohibit that now, and we did not propose a change on that issue. Some of the changes made do give the City more enforcement flexibility if it becomes an issue—e.g., providing that the activity cannot obstruct traffic, referencing the right on the part of public officials to direct that the solicitation cease. While the ordinances of some communities generally provide that soliciting in the roadway is prohibited, as a practical matter enforcement of that limitation is often inconsistent.

We look forward to discussing the issue with Council. If you have any questions regarding the above, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

THE CITY OF NOVI HEREBY ORDAINS

Part I. That the City of Novi Code of Ordinances, Chapter 26, Peddlers, Solicitor, and Transient Merchants, is hereby amended to read as follows, in its entirety:

Sec. 26-1. Definitions.

The following words, terms and phrases, when used in this chapter, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

Non-commercial solicitation means the request of money, credit, property, financial assistance or other thing of value on the plea or representation that such money, credit, property, financial assistance or other thing of value, or any part thereof, will be used for a charitable, religious, patriotic, civic, educational, or philanthropic purpose. The said words shall also mean and include the sale or offer to sell any article, tag, ticket, emblem, publication, advertisement, subscription, or other thing, whether of value or not, on the pleas or representation that such money, credit, property, financial assistance, or other thing of value, or any part thereof, whether received by the solicitor or purchased by the buyer, will be used for a charitable, religious, patriotic, civic, educational or philanthropic purpose.

Peddler means any person traveling by foot, wagon, automotive vehicle or other conveyance, from place to place, from house to house, or from street to street (1) carrying, conveying or transporting goods, wares, merchandise, meats, fish, vegetables, fruits, garden truck, farm products or provisions, offering and exposing the same for sale; (2) making sales and delivering articles to purchasers; (3) who takes or attempts to take orders for sale of goods, wares and merchandise, books or magazines, personal property of any nature whatsoever for future delivery, or for services to be furnished or performed in the future, whether or not such individual has, carries or exposes for sale a sample of the subject of such sale or whether he is collecting advance payments on such sales or not. Peddler shall not include a person who conducts such activities at a social gathering within a home at the invitation of the occupant of the home. The word "peddler" shall be synonymous with the phrase "transient merchant."

Sec. 26-2. Permit/license required.

(a) No person shall solicit or peddle for any cause whatsoever, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, within the City of Novi without displaying in plain view on their person a current permit or license from the city clerk, authorizing such solicitation or peddling. (b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 26-2(a), no permit or license shall be required for minors when engaged in solicitation or peddling for civic, charitable, philanthropic, religious, educational or athletic purposes, or when the minor is either accompanied by an adult or there is compliance with the provisions relating to group minor permits and licenses contained within subsections 26-2(c)--(e).

(c) An adult may obtain a minor group solicitation permit or a minor group peddling license in accordance with this subsection. Such revocation shall be effective upon verbal notification by means of the telephone and/or pager numbers provided pursuant to subpart 26-2(d)(2), or by written notification addressed to the grantee's address as provided with grantee's application. The grantee, upon request, shall be provided a hearing before the chief of police, or his designee, for the consideration of reinstatement of the permit or license. Such hearing shall be during the business hours of 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., and, if requested by the grantee, shall be within twenty-four (24) hours of the revocation.
