

Delivering Support for Small Businesses

We are committed to helping Michigan's small business community prosper, now more than ever.

Small businesses throughout the state are suddenly struggling to survive after closing to help us stay safe during the Coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak.

Consumers Energy can provide meaningful and immediate help by:

- Working with you on your utility bill.
- Connecting you to potential sources of state and federal relief.
- Providing new business opportunities through the Pure Michigan Business Connect Program.

Call us at 800-805-0490 to get assistance with your energy bill and to learn how to find additional short-term help.

Your First Step: Call Consumers Energy

Please contact us if the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic has made it challenging to meet basic businesses expenses such as rent, payroll or utility bills.

Small business customers can call 800-805-0490 to get assistance with their energy bills and to learn about additional short-term resources.

Don't wait to talk with us. Helping you bridge this gap successfully is one of our top priorities because we understand small businesses are the backbone of Michigan's economy.

Here are just a few additional sources of local, state and federal help that may be available to your small businesses during the Coronavirus (COVID-19) crisis.

Michigan Small Business Relief Program

Created by the Michigan Economic Development Corporation (MEDC), this program will distribute $20 million to small businesses through local economic development organizations. The funding includes $10 million in grants and $10 million in loans available to help small businesses meet expenses such as payroll, rent or mortgage payments and utilities. Eligibility depends on a variety of criteria, including the size of your business.
