Spend a day reconnecting with nature as we explore one of Michigan's most beautiful botanical spaces.

Guided Garden Tour – Explore the beautiful outdoor gardens with a knowledgeable guide as you learn about seasonal plantings, landscapes, and the role of botanical gardens in conservation and education.

Bonsai Garden Experience – Spend time admiring the artistry and patience behind the bonsai collection, where carefully shaped trees reflect decades of cultivation and care.

Conservatory Visit – Step inside the warm, glass-enclosed conservatory filled with diverse plant life from different climates and environments.

Hands-On Planting Activity – Take part in a guided planting experience designed for all levels and create a small living keepsake to bring home.

9:00am - 3:30pm
