Experience the Magic of The Holiday Season in Detroit!

Campus Martius: This isn't any old tree — this is OUR tree. Campus Martius is where all of Detroit's major roads meet downtown and there is so much to see in the heart of the city.

Downtown Detroit Holiday Market: Located in Cadillac Square, this holiday market is like none other. Tons of great local stores packed into one super-festive place. It's next door to the Cadillac Lodge which might be described as the coziest tent on earth.

Light Up Beacon Park (DTE): When the energy company makes a holiday lights installation you know it's going to be BRIGHT! Detroit Edison decked out Beacon Park for you to enjoy.

The Guardian Building: Enjoy a brief tour of the building followed by shopping at the Detroit Souvenir Shop along with Hot Chocolate & Cookies!

Christmas Sweater Contest: We will have some friendly competition with a prize for the best Christmas Sweater - Naughty (ugly) or Nice! Participation not mandatory.
