

HISTORIC MARSHALL

YOUR BIANCO TOUR INCLUDES:

Round Trip Transportation - Via deluxe highway motorcoach. Equipped with reclining seats, overhead storage, and a restroom for your comfort and convenience.

- Honolulu House - Standing in the heart of Marshall's National Historic Landmark District, it is listed on the Historic American Buildings Survey. The house was built in 1860 by the first U.S. consul to the Sandwich Islands. For the next century it served as the residence of four Marshall families, until the Marshall Historical Society was formed in 1961 to purchase it and turn it into a museum. Constructed of Marshall sandstone, the Museum is a wonderful blend of Italianate, Gothic Revival, and Polynesian architecture.
- Tour of Historic Marshall - (1 hour guided city tour) Marshall is home to several interesting and unusual museums. The city also has over 800 buildings on the National Historic Register and is full of 19th century homes and was named a Historical Landmark District by US Parks Department.
- Schuler's Restaurant & Pub (included lunch) - For more than a century, the Schuler family has been welcoming guests to their restaurant in Marshall, Michigan.
- United States Postal Museum - The second largest Postal Service Museum in the U.S., second in size only to the National Postal Museum. The museum is located in the basement of the post office building, which has a Greek Revival architectural style with a copper roof and was built in 1932 of Marshall Sandstone. The museum has a wonderful collection of Postal memorabilia, including 3 mail buggies and 3 vehicles on display.
